lay your deadly doing down, down at Jesus' feet

Jesus paid it all, took the Father's cup of wrath and as He drank it through the dregs, He gave His life instead of mine.

G C G D

weary, working, burdened one, why do you labor so cease your doing, all was done, on a cross, long ago oh to Jesus' work we cling, for our doing ends in death all our trust in Him alone, and our souls will find their rest
